Dear Sirs:

I have recently seen one of the pamphlets you publish on the Commemorative Coinage of the United States by Howland Wood, and if these pamphlets are for distribution, would very much appreciate having a copy.

I enclose postage for transmittal if this is agreeable.

Yours very truly,

Robert A. Stone

Dear Sir:

The monograph for which you inquire, Wood's "Commemorative Coinage," is published at $1.50. Our members receive these publications free but I am unable to send you one gratis. Are you interested in collecting and would you care to consider becoming a member of our Society? This would not entitle you to the work in question, I should explain, because it was published several years ago. I am venturing the inquiry in the possibility that you may care to consider the suggestion..

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir:

Answering your letter of the 7th inst. in connection with "Commemorative Coinage", I would not be interested in purchasing this at the price you mentioned, and as I am not a regular coin collector, only interested in these Memorial Half Dollars, would not be interested in considering the matter of becoming a member of the Society.

Thanking you for your general information on the subject, I remain

Very truly yours,
